Definition of Spouse and Dependants (for extended health and dental purposes)

Spouse: A spouse is a person of the same or opposite sex whom you are married to or living with in a marriage-like relationship.

If you are in a common-law relationship, you must live together for 12 months before being eligible to apply for extended health benefits and dental coverage for your spouse (unless you are claiming your spouse's children as dependants on your income tax return). If in a common-law relationship, you may be required to provide proof that you have been living in a common-law relationship for 12 months or more. If you leave one common-law relationship and enter another, you must wait 12 months after cancelling coverage for your first spouse and dependants before you can enrol another spouse and other dependants.

Your spouse is not entitled to health benefits if they are separated from you for other than health reasons.

Dependent child: A dependent child may be your natural child, stepchild, adopted child or legal ward (requires a court order, attach a copy). A dependent child must also be:

- not working more than 30 hours per week on a permanent (year-round) basis,
- not married or not living in a marriage-like relationship as common law,
- claimed as a dependant on your income tax,
- under 19 years of age, or under 25 years of age and attending an accredited school or university full time (minimum three courses per semester, including co-op programs, and online and correspondence courses) in a program leading toward a diploma, degree or certificate recognized in Canada (proof of school attendance will be required), or
- of any age with a mental or physical disability and accepted as a dependant for income tax purposes. The pension plan will verify eligibility with Pacific Blue Cross for disabled dependant(s).

What you need to know

- Your spouse and/or dependants must apply for medical coverage under the government plan in your province.
- Continuous coverage since your retirement date is a condition of eligibility for spouse/dependant(s). For the purpose of this application, we require the details of insurance coverage for the past 12 months only.
- Coverage will be effective the first of the month following cancellation of previous coverage.
- If adding a new spouse and/or dependant you must apply within 60 days of:
 - termination of their benefits coverage under another plan, or
 - the date upon which you married or remarried (copy of marriage certificate required), or
 - the date upon which you and your common-law spouse have lived together for 12 months, or
- the date upon which an individual became your dependant (copy of legal document required), or
- the date upon which an individual commences post-secondary studies.
- Coverage will be effective the first of the month following their eligibility date, except students whose coverage will be effective in the month they become eligible.
- Some provinces charge tax on dental insurance premiums.
